Question for Youth: As you grow up, learning how to say "thanks" is an important lesson. What are some ways you can show your gratitude to your teachers and parents? And what are some ways to show God you are thankful?

Sparks from Fr. Mark

I would like thank everyone who contributed a recipe or two to our OLBH Generations of Taste parish cookbook, which should be here before Christmas so you may purchase for Christmas presents if you like. The cookbook has 350 recipes that will surely satisfy any appetite across the generations.

The cookbook is laid out nicely, with larger print and comes with a hard cover to last another generation or two, while at the same time inspiring good, simple and home cooked family and parish meals. The good news, using the hard cover style of the cookbook, is that it is a three ring binder and enables one to continue to build their parish cookbook by adding more recipes if you want.

We ordered 300 of the parish cookbooks. The cost for each cookbook is $11.25. You do not have to, but if you want to, you can call the parish office at 787-5168 or e-mail the office at olbh@olbh.org and reserve your copy or copies today.

As the foretaste of what is to come this Christmas in the cookbook, we have included a few of our generational recipes as an insert, for your sampling.

Prayer List

Names will remain on the prayer list for one month. Please contact the office if continued prayers are needed.

RENEW YOUR SPIRIT

Do you know someone who is no longer part of our parish community? If so, begin to pray and think of ways you can invite that person to be a part of our community. We want to reach out to as many people as possible. Think of young people who may not look to the Church to help them find meaning in their lives. Think of those who may be angry with the Church. Reach out to them because we want everyone to share Christ's joy. Beginning in October we will begin small faith sharing groups again. Encourage as many people as you can to participate. All are welcome even if they have not participated in previous seasons. We want to reach out to everyone and move together as a human family toward greater unity and reconciliation.

The Knights of Columbus will host a Pancake Breakfast and Bake Sale from 8 a.m. to noon on October 21st. Pancakes, juice, coffee, apple pie filling and sausage will be served. Baked goodies of all kinds will be offered for sale. Free-will donations will be accepted for breakfast. All proceeds will go to support our seminarians Jonathan Dillon and Frank Sack.

The Stewardship Committee will host OKTOBERFEST on October 28th at 5:00 p.m. at OLBH. Brats, sauerkraut, red cabbage, black forest cake, and root beer will be served. Fr. Arnie will be back with his one man polka band for your listening and dancing pleasure. $3.50 for adults, $1.50 for kids 6-12 yrs, under 6 free. Come one and all for a good time!

Faithful Citizenship

October 7th 2007

If you're a family caregiver, we thank you for what you do. It may never have occurred to you that caregiving is pro-life. Your compassion, dedication, and hard work are testimonies to the value of human life. God has chosen you to play a central role in providing that care. Just as from the cross Jesus asked St. John the patron saint of caregivers-to take care of his Blessed Mother, God asks you to help take care of someone else He deeply loves. What you're doing is a prayer, and the path you and your loved one are taking is a pilgrimage. It is the Father asking you to help his son or daughter along these final stages of that journey.

For the Ride Home

by Ted Bergh

Scripture

- For the vision still has its time, presses on to fulfillment, and will not disappoint... (Habakkuk 2:3)
- Oh that today you would hear his voice: "Harden not your hearts..." (Psalm 95)
- I remind you to stir into flame the gift of God that you have... (2 Timothy 1:8)
- And the apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith." (Luke 17:5)
- ...When you have done all you have been commanded, say, 'We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.'" Luke 17:10)

Reflection

- What is the difference between peace and justice?
- What is the difference between expected and overwhelmed?
- What is the difference between earned and given?
- What is the difference between obligated and freed?
- What is the difference between grasped and released?
- What words describe faith and the spiritual life?
- What words would you use to describe faith?

We must allow Christ to pervade our souls to the extent that he becomes all in all; we must, according to St. Paul's beautiful expression, "put on" Christ (Romans 13:14), trying to be what he was, such that we truly become his disciples. The whole of Christian life is this progressive evangelization of our being, this shedding of the flesh, selfish and closed up within ourselves, this opening up to Christ's teachings that we must follow. ...The Christian life consists in allowing the Holy Spirit to transform us gradually into Christ. The unique end of every person is to become another Christ ... This is not a matter of choice but the sole purpose of existence. (Jean Cardinal Danielou)
